

WEBINAR

Brokers' Exposure to Professional Negligence Claims arising from the Coronavirus Pandemic – How to Support your Broker Network.

This webinar is in conjunction with the Managing General Agents Association and Hailsham Chambers.

Speakers: Sam Moore, Robert Lloyd & Imran Benson (Hailsham Chambers).

There will be a discussion of policy coverage issues in relation to claims arising from the pandemic including the extent to which business interruption policies provide cover. There will be an explanation of brokers' obligations pre and post policy inception by reference to case law. Then examples will be given of practical steps MGAs could take to help reduce the prospect of professional negligence claims successfully being made against brokers.
