

JOHN EASTLAKE TO JOIN AS A PARTNER

We are delighted to announce that professional indemnity specialist, John Eastlake, is joining Caytons as a Partner with effect from today, 1 March 2023.

He has specialised in professional indemnity throughout his career and has defended a wide range of professionals.

John has particular expertise in acting for lawyers, accountants and for professionals in the construction industry, notably architects and engineers, but his clients also include brokers, financial advisors, IT professionals, surveyors and valuers.

John will be joining from DWF Law LLP in Bristol where he is currently a Partner.

To coincide with John's arrival, Caytons has opened its second UK office at Finzels Reach, in the heart of Bristol's city centre.

John has extensive experience in defending negligence claims against professionals and handling complex coverage issues.

He has considerable mediation and litigation experience and advises a number of insurers and MGAs on coverage issues arising from professional indemnity, management liability and D&O policies.

"We are extremely pleased to have someone of John's experience and abilities join us and he's a true gentleman"

John Cayton,
Senior Partner
